College Information

Missouri Connections ( www.missouriconnections.org ) is a massive website that includes online interest inventories and searchable databases of degrees and certifications, occupations and colleges. All NCCS students will be introduced to this resource sometime during the year. Let Mrs. Pollard or Mr. Tatum know if you need help getting signed on.

College Confidential ( www.collegeconfidential.org ) is a good clearinghouse of up-to-date information about colleges. If you are the parent of a high school student, spend some time soon at the website. The site is free and absolutely full of articles and links for rankings, financial aid, tips for the college search, and what students and parents are talking about now.

Other Options for ACT Prep

- Copies of ACT's "Preparing for the ACT" booklets are available for any student who wants one in Mrs. Howren's office. There are also booklets for Juniors to prepare for the PSAT/NMSQT that will be given October 11.
- ACT also has an online prep program that can be purchased for $39.95 at ACT Online Prep. Students registering with a fee waiver based on income may be eligible for free online preparation materials (see Mrs. Howren for details.)
- St Louis Community College offers a 7 to 8week ACT prep class (EDUC 712). It's a non-credit community education class that costs $189 and is located on different campuses. It is offered one night per week or on a Saturday morning. You can register online at SLCC Interactive Class Schedule by entering Continuing Education, all campuses, Education, and EDUC 712. The next session is scheduled to start in October.
- Many students would benefit from an ACT workshop and raising their score by 12 Points could the mean the difference in the availability of scholarship funds. There are lots of test taking strategies that might help students improve their scores.
- Webster University offers ACT Prep seminars, Saturdays, 7:30 am – 2:30 pm for $50. These one day seminars are currently scheduled for Saturday, November, 2018 (ACT); Saturday, January 20, 2018 (ACT); and Saturday, March 10, 2018 (ACT)
